

Stage 3 - Lesson 27: Words ending in '-gue' and '-que'

vague dialogue

league unique plague grotesque

fatigue plaque antique mosque

Put this week's words in alphabetical order.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Which word should replace the underlined word?

I found this chair in an fatigue shop.

The league in this book is really funny.

Her answers were antique and uncertain.

A unique is a place for Muslims to pray.

Can you write the word based on the clues?

In which word does 'ea' sound like /ee/?

Which word has the meaning of 'only one'?

In which word does 'o' sound like /oa/?

Which word means 'extreme tiredness'?

Which two words begin with 'p', 'l'?

Sort this week's words according to the number of syllables.

1

2 or More

How confident are you with this week's words?

